

Talk for Writing

Open Mornings & School Development Days

SEE IT IN ACTION | SHARE GOOD PRACTICE | DEVELOP TOGETHER

Join us at Warren Road Primary School to see Talk for Writing in action and work with Claire McGeehan on a specific school improvement focus.

Option 1: Open Morning £75

- ✓ Time in lessons to see Talk for Writing in action
- ✓ Look through pupils' books
- ✓ Talk to pupils about their writing and learning

Option 2: Whole Day £150

Includes the open morning plus a focused afternoon working with teachers on a specific school improvement area (see dates below).

 Date	 Open Morning Focus	 Afternoon Focus (for whole day delegates)
Thursday 8th October	See TfW in action across the school	Planning a Talk for Writing sequence
Thursday 3rd December	See TfW in action across the school	Talk for Writing in EYFS
Thursday 28th January	See TfW in action across the school	Talk for Writing and KS2 moderation
Thursday 11th March	See TfW in action across the school	Planning a Talk for Writing sequence
Thursday 3rd June	See TfW in action across the school	Talk for Writing and assessment

About the Facilitator

Claire McGeehan leads literacy at Warren Road Primary School and has been teaching Talk for Writing for over 10 years. She is a Lead Borough KS2 Moderator and is passionate about pupils seeing themselves as authors whilst raising standards, allowing every pupil to reach their full potential through a purposeful, joyful and inclusive approach to writing.

To book a place or find out more please contact Sinead O'Mahony
Sinead.OMahony@warrenroad.lseat.org.uk

Bringing multiple delegates?
Get in touch as we can offer multiple booking discounts.